PER M. L. P.
DEPUTY CLERK

INTRODUCTION

A. This action was instituted by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("the EEOC" or "the Commission") on August 25, 2008, against Ruby Tuesday, Inc. to enforce provisions of Title VII of the Civil Rights of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq. ("Title VII"). The Commission alleged that Ruby Tuesday, Inc. ("Ruby Tuesday") discriminated against Michelle Gydosh as well as a class of female employees who worked at Ruby Tuesday's Stroudsburg, PA facility, when they were subjected to sexually explicit, insulting and derogatory comments and conduct, which created a sexually hostile and offensive work environment based on their sex, female. The Commission also alleged that Ruby Tuesday failed to undertake prompt, effective, remedial action to stop the offensive and discriminatory conduct. Further, the Commission maintained that as a result of the sexually hostile work environment, Charging Party suffered back pay and emotional distress damages, and the class of female employees suffered emotional distress and damages. Ruby Tuesday denies these allegations and maintains that, at all times, it ensured that a non-discriminatory work environment existed at the Stroudsburg, PA facility, and contends that it effectively enforced its policies against unlawful harassment.

B. This Consent Decree is entered into by and shall be final and binding between the EEOC and Ruby Tuesday, its directors, officers, agents, successors and assigns.

C. The Commission and Ruby Tuesday agree to the entry of this Consent Decree, which shall fully and finally resolve all claims the EEOC raised in its Complaint in Civil Action No. 08-CV-1592. This Consent Decree shall not constitute either an adjudication of or finding on the merits of the complaint and shall not be construed as an admission by Defendant of any violation of Title VII.

FINDINGS

D. Having carefully examined the terms and provisions of this Consent Decree, and based on the pleadings, record and stipulations of the parties, the Court finds: (1) it has jurisdiction of the parties and subject matter jurisdiction of this action; and (2) the terms of this Decree are fair, reasonable, equitable and just, and adequately protect the rights of the parties, class members and the public interest.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

NON-DISCRIMINATION AND NON-RETALIATION

1. Ruby Tuesday agrees that it will provide workplaces free from sexual harassment, and agrees not to discriminate on the basis of sex in violation of Title VII.

2. Ruby Tuesday agrees that it will not engage in any employment practices which retaliate against any person, including but not limited to Michelle Gydosh; Melissa Johnson; Rosemary Singer; Dawn Kovacs; and Nicole Wallace, because of that person's opposition to any employment practice made unlawful by Title VII or because that person has made a charge, testified, assisted or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding or hearing under Title VII.

3. This Consent Decree fully and finally resolves this action which emanated from Charge No. 530-2007-03734, including the claims of Michelle Gydosh, Melissa Johnson, Rosemary Singer, Dawn Kovacs, Nicole Wallace, and former claimants Katie O'Donnell, Christina Knittel, Beverly Schane, Ellyn Widoss, Kaitlyn Knudson, Brittany Nichols, Bridgette Normando, and Daniella Normando.

The checks will be mailed to the foregoing persons at the addresses provided by the EEOC, and for purposes of timeliness, payments are considered made on the date the checks are mailed to the addresses provided by the EEOC.

POSTING OF NOTICE

5. Within 30 business days after entry of this Decree, Ruby Tuesday shall post a Notice, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2, at Ruby Tuesday' Stroudsburg, PA, facility on all bulletin boards used by Ruby Tuesday for communicating with employees, same-sized copies of the Notice. The Notice shall remain posted for three (3) years from the date of this Consent Decree. Ruby Tuesday will forward the location and dates of posting within 30 days after entry of this Decree to Rachel M. Smith, Trial Attorney, EEOC, 801 Market Street, Suite 1300, Philadelphia, PA. - (e) Provides for discipline up to and including discharge of any employee who violates Defendants' policy or policies against sexual harassment discrimination.

7. Ruby Tuesday shall redistribute to all of its employees and newly-hired employees at the Stroudsburg, PA location, its Respect and Responsibility policy which prohibits sexual harassment within 90 days after entry of this Consent Decree.

This paragraph shall not be construed as placing any limit on remedies available to the Court in the event any individual is found in contempt for a violation of this Decree.

Should any material disputes under this Decree remain unresolved after this three (3) year period, the terms of the Decree shall be automatically extended (and the Court will retain jurisdiction of this matter to enforce the Consent Decree) until such time as all disputes have been resolved.
